

JEEVESHU AHLUWALIA

STAND-UP COMIC | ACTOR | HOST | VOICE OVER ARTIST | MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

After being diagnosed with Monday allergies, he quit his teenage (16 year old) job and walked away to do Stand-Up. Few years later, he's happier bringing roaring laughter to thousands than lecturing a corporate smartass. His fascination with comedy normally sways between a fat guy's amusing life (his) and failed attempts to please his over optimistic mother whose only dream is to get him married. And thinner. And taller. And younger...

Jeeveshu's quick wit can be easily spotted in spontaneous one-liners & quirky jokes. His peculiar style of comedy is most inspired by everyday observations. He has done over 2000 shows across different genres. His journey from the board room to the biggest clubs, colleges, corporates, auditoriums and comedy festivals has taken him to every corner of India and other countries such as Australia, Bahrain, Singapore, Dubai, Doha, Thailand, Philippines, China, Spain, Italy and Malaysia (who doesn't love travelling for free!).

He made his Bollywood debut with "Tamasha" starring Ranbir Kapoor and Deepika Padukone directed by Imtiaz Ali and followed up with his stellar performance in "Happy Phir Bhag Jayegi" directed by Mudassar Aziz. He is a TEDx speaker and you can spot him on TV in commercials for Havmor, MakeMyTrip, Loan Junction, Comedy Central India, Phillips, Apollo Hospitals, ICICI Prudential, Grofers and more. His TV Debut was with Zee TV in the comedy show "Gangs of Haseepur". He has been the winner of 'Radio Mirchi Comedy Ka King 2014' and his stand-up videos and comedy sketches have been featured as viral videos on YouTube garnering over 22 Million Views.
